

OUR COMMITMENT

The role of the remuneration committee is to assist the Board in monitoring and reviewing any matters of significance affecting the remuneration of the Board and employees of the Company. This charter defines the remuneration committee's function, composition, mode of operation, authority and responsibilities.

1.0 Scope

This Charter applies to all members of the remuneration committee.

2.0 Composition

The Board will strive to adhere to the following composition requirements for the committee where at all possible. However, the Board acknowledges that the composition of the Board may not allow adherence to the following composition requirements from time to time.

- The committee shall comprise at least three Directors, the majority being independent non-executive Directors.
- The committee will be chaired by an independent Director who will be appointed by the Board.
- The Board may appoint such additional non-executive Directors to the committee or remove and replace members of the committee by resolution.

3.0 Purpose

The primary purpose of the committee is to support and advise the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities to shareholders by:

- Reviewing and approving the executive remuneration policy to enable the Company to attract and retain executives and Directors who will create value for shareholders.
- Ensuring that the executive remuneration policy demonstrates a clear relationship between key executive performance and remuneration.
- Recommending to the Board the remuneration of executive Directors.
- Fairly and responsibly rewarding executives having regard to the performance of the Company and its subsidiaries (if any) (Group), the performance of the executive and the prevailing remuneration expectations in the market without rewarding conduct that is contrary to the Company's values or risk appetite and having regard to the Company's commercial interest in controlling expenses.
- Ensuring incentives for non-executive Directors do not conflict with their obligation to bring an independent judgement to matters before the Board.
- Reviewing the Company's recruitment, retention and termination policies and procedures for key management personnel.
- Reviewing and approving the remuneration of direct reports to the Chief Executive Officer/Managing Director, and as appropriate other key management personnel; and
- Reviewing and recommending approval to the Board of any equity-based plans and other incentive schemes.

4.0 Duties and Responsibilities

4.1 Executive Remuneration Policy

- Review and approve the Group's recruitment, retention and termination policies and procedures for senior executives to enable the Company to attract and retain executives and Directors who can create value for shareholders.
- Review the on-going appropriateness and relevance of the executive remuneration policy and other executive benefit programs.
- Ensure that remuneration policies fairly and responsibly reward executives having regard to the performance of the Company, the performance of the executive and prevailing remuneration expectations in the market without rewarding conduct that is contrary to the Company's values or risk appetite and having regard to the Company's commercial interest in controlling expenses.

4.2 Executive Directors and Senior Management

- Consider and make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration for each executive Director (including base pay, incentive payments, equity awards, retirement rights, service contracts) having regard to the executive remuneration policy.
- Review and approve the proposed remuneration (including incentive awards, equity awards and service contracts) for the direct reports of the Chief Executive Officer/Managing Director. As part of this review the committee will oversee an annual performance evaluation of key management personnel. This evaluation is based on specific criteria, including the business performance of the Company and its subsidiaries, whether strategic objectives are being achieved and the development of management and personnel.
- Approve termination payments to direct reports to the Chief Executive Officer/Managing Director, subject to compliance with both ASX Listing Rules and Corporations Act 2001 where shareholder approval may be required. Termination payments to other departing executives should be reported to the committee at its next meeting.
- Consider and make recommendations to the Board on termination payments to Executive Directors including the Chief Executive Officer/Managing Director, subject to compliance with both ASX Listing Rules and Corporations Act 2001 where shareholder approval may be required.

4.3 Executive Incentive Plans (including Equity Based Plans)

- Review and recommend approval to the Board of the design of any executive incentive plans (Plans).
- Ensuring incentives for non-executive Directors do not conflict with their obligation to bring an independent judgement to matters before the Board.
- Review and approve any Plans that may be introduced in light of legislative, regulatory and market developments.
- For each Plan, determine each year whether awards will be made under that Plan.
- Review and approve total proposed awards under each Plan.
- In addition to considering awards to executive Directors and direct reports to the Chief Executive Officer/Managing Director, review and approve proposed awards under each Plan on an individual basis for executives as required under the rules governing each Plan or as determined by the committee.
- Review, approve and keep under review performance hurdles for each Plan.
- Review, manage and disclose the policy (if any) under which participants to a Plan may be permitted (at the discretion of the Company) to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the Plan.

5.0 Other

The committee shall perform other duties and activities that it or the Board considers appropriate.

6.0 Meetings

- The committee will meet at least once per year and additionally as circumstances may require.
- Meetings are called by the Secretary as directed by the Board or at the request of the Chairman of the committee.
- A quorum shall comprise any two members of the committee. In the absence of the Chairman of the committee or appointed delegate, the members shall elect one of their members as Chairman.
- Where deemed appropriate by the Chairman of the committee, meetings and subsequent approvals may be held or concluded by way of a circular written resolution or a conference call.
- Decisions will be based on a majority of votes with the Chairman of the committee having the casting vote.
- The committee may invite any key management personnel team members or other individuals, including external third parties, to attend meetings of the committee, as they consider appropriate.

7.0 Secretary

- The Company Secretary or their nominee shall be the Secretary of the committee and shall attend meetings of the committee as required.
- The Secretary will be responsible for keeping the minutes of meeting of the committee and circulating them to committee members and to the other members of the Board.
- The Secretary shall distribute supporting papers for each meeting of the committee as far in advance as possible.

8.0 Reliance on Information or Professional or Expert Advice

Each member of the committee is entitled to rely on information, or professional or expert advice, to the extent permitted by law, given or prepared by:

- An employee of the Group whom the member believes on reasonable grounds to be
- Reliable and competent in relation to the matters concerned;
- A professional adviser or expert in relation to matters that the member believes on reasonable grounds to be within the person's professional or expert competence; or
- Another Director or officer of the Group in relation to matters within the Director's or officer's authority.

9.0 Access to Advice

- Members of the committee have a right to access the books and records of the Company to enable them to discharge their duties as committee members, except where the Board determines that such access would be adverse to the Company's interests.
- The committee may consult independent experts to assist it in carrying out its duties and responsibilities. Any costs incurred as a result of the committee consulting an independent expert will be borne by the Company.

10.0 Review of Charter

- The Board will conduct an annual review of the Committee and this Charter to ensure that the committee has carried out its functions in an effective manner and will update this charter as required or as a result of new laws or regulations.
- The charter shall be made available to members on request, to senior management, to the external auditor and to other parties as deemed appropriate and will be posted to the Company's website.

11.0 Reporting

- The committee must report to the Board formally at the next Board meeting following from the last committee meeting on matters relevant to the committee's role and responsibilities.
- The committee must brief the Board promptly on all urgent and significant matters.
- The committee will review and recommend for Board approval the Annual Remuneration Report included within the Annual Report.
- The Company must disclose the policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive Directors, executive Directors and other key management personnel in the Annual Report and as otherwise required by law.

Last review and approval: June 2024
